

MORNING APPEAL.

THURSDAY.....MAY 22

THE SILVER LEGISLATION.

While the people of Nevada are reverting so loudly for silver legislation at Washington, they overlook the fact that a little can be done at home.

In several places in our Statute books is found the expression: "payable in U. S. gold coin," but no where else do we find the expression, "payable in gold or silver coin."

Many of our leading merchants—rampant silver men—print on their bill heads "all bills payable in U. S. gold coin." We have been dealing in this "gold coin" business for years, and now that the silver agitation is taking precedence over everything, it would be a good idea to show the world what we think of silver in commercial dealing in Nevada.

Let every individual print on his bill heads that he takes pay for goods in gold or silver coin, and then when an Eastern gold-bug gets such a bill he cannot go about waving it the faces of people to show how insincere we are in the Silver State.

Practicing what we preach is a good way to convince the world of our sincerity. Let the next Legislature wipe out the "gold coin" expressions from the Statute books.

Jim Townsend suggests a short way of settling the silver question. He says: "The demonization of silver has resulted in more loss of property to the United States than was suffered in the great rebellion. It amounts to billions of hard dollars taken directly from the pockets of miners. Congress can stop this senseless spoliation by enacting a law that will make sixteen ounces of silver worth one ounce of gold. That will settle the cathop.

The bowie knife has generally been regarded as about the most effective of all offensive weapons, but when a colored man pulls out a razor in a crowd and opens it with fight in his eye, the room is generally cleared in about two seconds. The razor is the most dangerous weapon that floats.

The silver bill has been sent back to the Finance Committee. It was the understanding that it was to remain before the Senate until passed or beaten. Sending it back to the Committee looks unfavorable. Who can tell how long it will remain there?

The State Board of Examiners have again refused to pay the special election bill of Ormsby county time and the Commissioners have ordered suit to be brought for the amount due, $296.

Judge Field's Explanation.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Judge Field has explained his connection with the case of Waite, whose name was withdrawn by the President after having sent it to the Senate for the position of Register. The Judge says he showed the magazine article by Waite in eulogy of Judge Terry to a Senator, who saw it in a reflection on the Administration, after which he was quite certain that neither Governor Stanford, who was Waite's friend, nor the whole delegation from California could have secured his confirmation. Judge Field adds: "I have no interest in the appointments and do not care a straw about them, except so far as they relate to judicial officers, nor do I busy myself in any way about them, but I do not expect to uphold would-be assassins or those who eulogize them or gloss over their crimes."

PARTY HARMONY.—Ruf. Shoemaker, of Grass Valley, publishes a very funny article on party harmony and closes by giving his ideas of party harmony in his section as follows:

"Why can we not live in harmony?" said a man to his neighbor, as he struck him in the face with his clenched fist. "My sentiments exactly," rejoined the neighbor, returning the blow with compound interest.

A NEW BOOK.—A book by Mary A. Livermore, entitled, "My Story of the War," has just been put upon the market. In this new and superbly illustrated work, the world-famous authoress narrates her personal work and experiences as a hospital and field nurse during the war of the rebellion. We do not know when 700 pages have given us more genuine pleasure. Mrs. Livermore spent four years as a nurse in hospitals, camps, at the front, and on the battle field, and these four years were packed with pathos, glory and sacrifice, probably never paralleled in the life of any other woman. Her narrative presents a vivid inner picture of the womanly side of the war, more especially her own work and thrilling experiences, with many pathetic and humorous incidents portraying the lights and shadows of hospital life. They are described as only an eye witness and a tender hearted woman could describe them.

WHAT ON EARTH—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price?
